

I am adamantly opposed to any weakening of the New Jersey Do Not Call program. I can finally take a nap without the damn phone always ringing with calls from people that I don't want to talk to.